THE SENIOR PARTNER

Dear Sir/Madam

ATTORNEYS FIDELITY FUND PROFESSIONAL INDEMNITY INSURANCE SCHEME

NEW OPTIONS REGARDING PROFESSIONAL INDEMNITY COVER TO BE INTRODUCED WITH EFFECT FROM 01 JULY 2006

The Attorneys Fidelity Fund Professional Indemnity Insurance Scheme affords a certain level of free professional indemnity cover to all attorneys practising in South Africa in terms of the Attorneys Act 53 of 1979 (as amended). The liabilities of this scheme are underwritten by the Attorneys Insurance Indemnity Fund.

The details of the cover are contained in an annually renewable policy document, which comes into force on 01 July of each year and expires on 30 June of the following year.

The limits of indemnity and deductibles (excesses) are determined by the number of partners that constitute the insured practice on the date that the alleged cause of action arose, in accordance with the schedule to the applicable policy document.

A number of practitioners have expressed the concern that the existing deductibles are unduly high particularly in respect of practitioners who are not at risk for claims which are likely to require high levels of professional indemnity cover.

In order to accommodate these concerns and to attempt to meet the requirements of all practitioners, the Attorneys Insurance Indemnity Fund has agreed to again offer practitioners a choice of one of the following three options for the 2006 / 2007 year:

OPTION 1. Current Limits of Indemnity and Deductibles

PRINCIPALS IN PRACTICE	LIMITS OF INDEMNITY	DEDUCTIBLE	DEDUCTIBLE MVA

13	487 500	42 000	73 500
14 AND ABOVE	500 000	45 000	78 750

Note: Limits of Indemnity are on the basis of an aggregate amount per practice (i.e. maximum amount of cover per practice per year), with applicable deductibles per practice in respect of every claim.

(It should be noted that, as before, if Prescription Alert has not been utilised and adhered to by the practitioner, the applicable MVA deductible will be increased by an additional 15%.)

In selecting one of the options it is important to note that the limit of indemnity afforded by the scheme is provided on an aggregate basis and does not apply individually to each and every claim made against a particular legal practice. This means that practitioners who decide to take advantage of option two or three must be prepared to assume the risk that the sum total of all the claims made against them in the forthcoming year of insurance may exceed their reduced limit of indemnity.

The relevant option must be exercised prior to 30 June 2006 and will only apply to claims dealt with in terms of the policy applicable to the period 01 July 2006 to 30 June 2007.
